DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102 (b) as being anticipated by James; David V et al. [US 6414971 B1].

As per claim 1, James teaches:

A network system (Abstract) comprising:

a transmitter device for transmitting real-time data containing contents data; a transmission line for transmitting the real-time data transmitted from the transmitter device; a bridge device for receiving the real-time data transmitted via the transmission line; a wireless network for transmitting the data transmitted from the bridge device; and a receiver device for receiving the data transmitted via the wireless network from the transmitter device, [Col.5; 1-28]

wherein the bridge device includes a transmission-line receiving unit for receiving the real-time data transmitted via the transmission line, a reference time generator for generating a reference time independently from the transmitter device, and a network transmitting unit for Application/Control Number: 10/577,770

transmitting, via the wireless network, the reference time and the real-time data received by the transmission-line receiving unit, [Col.10; 31-39] and wherein the receiver device includes a first network receiving unit for receiving the realtime data and the reference time transmitted via the wireless network from the bridge device, a first internal time controller for generating an internal time based on the reference time received by the first network receiving unit, and a real-time data processor for decoding the real-time data received by the first network receiving unit as to reproduce the contents data, and outputting the reproduced contents data based on the internal time generated by the internal time controller. [Col.5: 35-48]

As per claim 2, James teaches:

The network system of claim I, wherein the transmitter device includes a second network receiving unit for receiving the reference time transmitted via the wireless network from the bridge device, a second internal time controller for generating an internal time based on the reference time received by the second network receiving unit, a transmission-line transmitting unit for transmitting the real-time data via the transmission line, and a controller for generating the real-time data from original real-time data and the internal time generated by the second internal time controller, the original real-time data containing the contents data. [Col.5; 9-34]

Claims 3-7 are the apparatus, system claims, corresponding to system claim 1 respectively, and rejected under the same rational set forth in connection with the rejection of claim 1 respectively, above.
